MAN OF FLAME

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

Sparks from everything join you to the flame
And only thus you seem fire

Dazzling you remain – you never become night
Man of flame – you know no attention

You want the log – and be it for the price of the world

You lick for more – but this 'more' won't extinguish you

You blaze on high, denying the ashes

Dazzling you remain – playing power
Man of flame – you know no attention

You want the log – and be it for the price of the world

Warmth is the fire's fruit,
Thy human licking – just a flight
For you honour not what feeds the flame
And blindly burn yourself at your own hearth.

Don't you feel what has been bestowed on you?

THE WOUNDED SPROUT

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

Greed and fear spark thee
And thou hast wounded me
Man of flame – you reap everything
Do you fail to recognize your journey?

Possessed by the spirit – beauty eroded

Here opens the wound that you inflict

You drag on in pain
Begetting yourself in defiance
Seeking a cure of the shells
Yet salvation is just the will
To an even harder blow

Greed and fear, they bind thee,
And sorely thou hast carried me
Man of flame, living for himself
Bringing his journey to a close

Forgetting the source – measuring emotion

May the wound open that you inflict

DEEP IN THE LAND

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

Your firm pace leads you away
Roots? Uproot them, step by step,
In secret, you hoard hope – and slaughter the present

Will you be the man who fought for dead things?
Will you be the man who suffered only lies?

Pendulum, pendulum – deep in the land,
Whose back is at the wall?

Your cowardly pace leads you away
Perpetrator? That's you – cut for cut
In secret, you hoard hope – and slaughter the present

Will you be the man who only inflicted wounds?
Will you be the man who represents life?

Pendulum, pendulum – deep in the land,
Whose back is at the wall?

Pendulum, pendulum – deep in the land,
Steel-like, man sinks into the sand
What is the strength of his hand
If it takes things too far?

Denial was your advice,
Denial and lies – your seed
Now receive your work

WOLF PULSE

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

You want to cry without tears,
Baring teeth, blood and vein,
A quick prey – by anger and swarf
Your leap smothers the ground

To you, animal is a mere first step,
Its calls just a drive
Countless the victims of your hooves
You don't want woe! Then recant!

Can you bear another choice?

Is your burden heavy? Do you still want more?

You want to cry without tears,
Baring teeth, blood and vein,
A quick prey – by anger and swarf
Your leap smothers the ground

A skin of lies warms your tomorrow,
Hunter of flames, you cannot worry,
An answer you will surely borrow,
Should the whole remain concealed to you,
The wolf pulse never was within you

Deep within you
Always here
You oust the circle

COME ABOUT, CHANGE

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

Man of Flame,
Thy crown weighs too heavy

Free inside you, the spirit bound to delusion
Free inside you, the force tormenting everything around
The beauty within writhing in pain
It shall free you as soon as you free it

Free inside you, the spirit, the delusion fading
Free inside you, the force finding its source
The beauty within still writhing in pain
It shall free you as soon as you free it

Thy heart, it beats
Yet it only takes, and it bears too hard

The spirit within you releases all that bound him to delusion
The force within you releases all that torments life
The beauty within still writhing in pain
It shall free you as soon as you free it

The spirit within you releases what unites all Being
The force within you releases – and binds itself to sources
The beauty within still writhing in pain
It shall free you as soon as you free it

Thy heart, it beats
And does it shape the world too much?

THE TRACK OF THE NIGHT

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

A day chaotically creates
If it's not dreamed by the night

Behind colours there's dark earth
Under clothes, day is the night's child
Between the words, your silence speaks
Between the poles, your lie is dying (sides, shores)
(quick)

Don't you feel the whole?
Don't you feel life?
Aren't you part of the circle?
Don't you fill the gap?

What drives you away from here?

You surge in days – and you break
Being circles within everything – and it's alive

Do not lose the track of the night during daytime

WITHIN ALL WEAVING

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

Daughter – son – sister – brother
Father – mother – old man – and child

It is time
The circle
Awakens
The force

Plant – animal – human – being
Earth – water – air – fire

It is time
The circle
Releases
The force

Within all weaving

ERST DEINE TRÄNE LÖSCHT DEN BRAND

(Music: Eviga/Inve, Lyrics: Eviga)

Only thy tear douses the fire

This prudent land, it blossoms and it withers
